Ing of Jesus Carranza.

Larede, Terms, Feb. 2—Gen. Santibanez's father, mother, wife and children are expected to be ordered executed by Vennstiano Carranza in revenue for the execution by Santibanez of the first chief's brother, Gen. Jesus Carranza, the litter's son. Abeliardo, and his aide, Ignaele Peraldi, according to advices received from Venaerum. News of the killing of Gen. Jesus Carranza was wired here Monday by the first chief to Mrz. Jesus Carranza.

Mrs. Carranza, a refugee in Laredo, in giving out the information of the death of her husband, said Venustiano Carranza and telegraphed her he would send thoops to recover the body. Gen. Jesus Carranza and this staff were taken prisoner by Santibanez recently near San Geronimo, on the istimus of Tahuantepec, and his staff, according to reports, was executed immediately. Carranza, his son Abelardo and Peraldi, a relative, were held prisoners at that time by Santibanez, who had thrown his forces to the Zapatz contingent.

Family Held as Hostoges.

The father, mother, wife and other members of Gen. Santhbanea's ramily were recently reported captured in the state of Jalapa, and sent to Veracruz, where Constitutionalists said they would hold them pending disposition of Jesus Carranza was executed because Venustiano Carranza refused to pardon Santibanea and receive him again as one of his generals. Advices received here from Veracruz shortly after the capture of the first chief's brother said Santibanea advised Venustiano Carranza that Jesus Carranza would be executed unless Santibanea was restored to his command.

carraised unless Santilianes was restored to his commend.

Carraise Refused Pardon.

It was said then that the first chief's reply was that his brother was willing to die for the cause, if necessary, and that he (Venuntiano Carraines) would have to see him die rather than pardon Santibanes.

The order went forth from Veracrus immediately, however, for troops to be rushed into Tehnantepee to rescue the eaptured general and his staff. Apparently they arrived too late.

Santibanes formerly was a general in the federal army, later joined the Carraine force, finally leaving them and attaching himself and an unknown force of men, it was said, to Zapata's command. It is not known here what caused Santibanes to leave Carraines.

of the delegates sojourning in California.

Detectives here today were investigating the destination of the large shipment of rifles and cartridges held reently by authorities at San Diego, Calif on their route from New York to Topolobampo, a Pacific port. The shipment which first was supposed to be destined for the warships of some European power, proves to have been contracted for by the new movement in Mexico. Blanco troops have now broken up into small hands.

May Attnek Mexice City.

The holding of Queretaro by a large force of Villa troops, according to unofficial Villa troops, according to unofficial Villa reports, means that that city is to be retained as a base for measuring Mexico City and that troops will be kent there to assist the Zapatistas should they start any offensive movement against Obregon in the national capital. A garrison at Queretaro could also be used effectively in blocking of hampering any movement of Carranza iroops north towards Villa's present base at Aguaccalientes. The Zapatistas are still close into the city and no general movement north has been attempted by Gen. Alvaro Obregon.

Six former federals, who entered Mexico on the strongth of the "ammenty decree" on January 9, in which Villa declared that federals not directly implicated in the death of Madero could return to their bountry, have been executed in Chibanhus, according to Carranza officials. The names of but two of the six executed are known. These two, according to the advices, are Lieut. Francisco Beffa and Capt. Alberto Reredis.

hattle of Torreon, in April, the price has now advanced to around $44 and $45 per 1090. Even at these figures, the supply is very limited, as many of the large manufacturers have contracted for their entire output up to the middle of February. After that date it is expected that larger supplies can be purchased for Mexican consumption but no drop in the price is looked for by ammunition agents here.

MAYTORENA TROOPS

Naco, Son,, is being occupied by Maytorena's troops from Cananea, railroad officials who arrived here Tuesday declare. Twenty men were seen to enter the frontier town Sunday afternoon at 129 from the direction of Cananea. They were armed with riftes and were seen to peer into the adobe houses which were formely occupied by Hill's troops in the town.
Sunday night the sentries stationed along the Mexican side of the border said a large force of Maytorena soldiers were coming from Cananea to occupy the border port. Monday 50 more soldiers appeared in the streets with rifles.

Villa Gets Fuet.

Shipments of coal, made in the last ten days, are believed to have been sufficient to relieve the familie in central Mexico and allow of all necessary troop movements by the Villa faction. On Monday 40 cars of coal were shipped from Juarez and it is estimated that about 200 cars have been sent south in the last two weeks. Besides the coal a considerable quantity of all has been sent south. BRITISH ARE ALARMED OVER MEXICAN SITUATION

Amunition is High.

Only small supplies of ammunition have been sent from Juarez recently. The price of .7 millmeter cartridges, which is the size used in Mausers, is soaring in the eastern markets on necount of the war. From a price of about $26 per 1000 at the time of the Washington, D. Gen. Felipe Angeles, Vilha lender, has driven all opposing forces away from Monterey and towns nearby.

The Carranas agency made public a dispatch from Gen. Carranas claiming a victory at Guadalajara. The message said:

'I have received messages from Gens. Dieguez and Murgia from Guadalajara, informing me that they at the head of their combined forces attacked the city, completely defeating the reactionaries and driving them to the northwest. Gens. Conturns, Ortega, Medina and Bazan, commanding the reactionaries, and the first two named generals were among the killed.

"All the supply trains of the enemy, including more than 290 cars, 20 locomotives, 13 cannon of 75 and 80 milimeters, 22 chests with grenades, eight machine guns and a large quantity of ammunition, clothing and horses were captured. Five hundred of the enemy were killed and 800 taken prisoner."
